

Keensight Capital appoints Jaana Grüter as Associate

Keensight Capital, a leading player in European Growth Private Equity<sup>1</sup>, today announces that it is strengthening its team with the arrival of Jaana Grüter as Associate.

Jaana Grüter will bring to her new role at Keensight Capital 7 years of experience in investment and M&A on a Pan-European level.

She began her career in 2008 within the M&A division of the Rothschild group, where she worked on multiple deals across numerous sectors and geographies out of the Paris office. In 2012, she moved to Five Arrows Principal Investments, a Western European mid-cap fund of the Rothschild group, where she focused on a series of investments within the Healthcare and Business Services sectors.

Jaana, 31 years old, holds a Master's degree in International Business and Finance from the University of Maastricht. A dual German and Finnish national, she speaks German, Finnish, English, French and Dutch.

Jean-Michel Beghin, managing partner at Keensight Capital, stated:

"We are delighted to welcome Jaana to join the Keensight Capital team. The investment experience she has already acquired, in sectors close to those in which we specialize, will be invaluable to her integration at the firm. Her international background, reflected by her multi-lingual capabilities, is ideally suited to Keensight's existing scope and culture."
