

Keensight Capital promotes Magdalena Svensson as Partner

Keensight Capital, one of the leading players in European Growth Private Equity¹, today announces that Magdalena Svensson is promoted as Partner.

Magdalena benefits from 17 years of experience in the Private Equity industry. Having started her career in 1998 in Sweden at Swedbank, she joined the Paris office of ABN Amro Capital in 2000 where she was involved in over twenty investments. She subsequently joined XAnge Private Equity in 2004, following their acquisition of ABN Amro Capital's activities, first as Investment Director and then as Partner from 2012. In the context of her different positions, Magdalena has acquired specific know-how in various sectors, including technology and healthcare. Magdalena joined Keensight as Investment Director in 2014. In 2016, she participated actively in the creation of the Italian group Demetra which combines two major players, Tecres S.p.A. (based in Italy) and aap Biomaterials GmbH (based in Germany), and was bought out by Keensight Capital, in order to become the independent worldwide leader of the bone cement and biomaterials for orthopaedic sector. In 2017, she conducted the investment in Unither, a pharmaceutical contract development manufacturing organization (CDMO), world leader in blow-fill-seal (BFS) technology.

Magdalena, 40 years old, holds an MBA from INSEAD and is a graduate of the University of Gothenburg (Sweden) in finance.
