

Adrien Van Eynde joins Keensight Capital as Chief Financial Officer

Keensight Capital, one of the leading players in Growth Private Equity¹, announced the appointment of Adrien Van Eynde as Chief Financial Officer, responsible for managing financial and accounting aspects of the management company and of its different investment vehicles, as well as monitoring financial reporting and performance.

Bio - Prior to joining Keensight Capital, Adrien worked at Ardian for 2 years, as Finance Officer of the Fund Finance department. He was in charge of the financial and operational management of the Expansion Funds (MidMarket funds), provided performance reporting and analysis, and supported the investment team on acquisition or disposal transactions.

Adrien started his career at leading French accounting firm Mazars where he worked for 4 years, from 2011 to 2015, as Financial Auditor, in Dublin then Paris. Thus, he specialized in auditing services geared towards financial institutions and more specifically private equity funds and related management companies.

Adrien, 30, is a graduate of Sciences Po Paris and a CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst) charterholder.
